Happy Father's Day

To the wonderful dads and father figures in our parish, we wish you a joyous and blessed Father's Day. Your love, guidance, and strength are deeply appreciated.

We also remember and honor all the fathers who have gone before us. We are grateful for all they did and the legacy they left behind.

May God bless you all abundantly!

Thank You Volunteers!

We extend our sincere gratitude to all who have volunteered to help with our parish picnic and Vacation Bible School. Your generosity and support are greatly appreciated. More information regarding these events will be communicated soon. If you would like more information, please email pastoroffice@olmcf.com or office@olmcf.com

Graduation Mass and Ceremony

Next Friday, the students of OLMC will be having their Graduation Mass and ceremony. We extend our heartfelt congratulations to all the graduates and wish them the very best in their future endeavors. May God guide and bless you on your new journey.
